

2. The only measure specified by the business requirements was Revenue. This is the unit sale for services purchased and events, or the quantity times the selling price for merchandise. Revenue is an additive measure.